Trains 58 and 59 between Jacksonville and Tallahassee were not discontinued Sunday, the management of the S. A. L. concluding that the same would be continued through the summer. This will be good news to travelers.

Report has it that Tol Vann will go to the cities of New York, Baltimore and other points soon to lay in a supply of fall and winter goods. Wonder who will accompany him on this long trip that his return will be a safe one?

Mr. and Mrs. Randell Pope reached home Saturday from Hot Springs, Ark., where they have been for the past several weeks. They were delighted with their trip and both were greatly benefited by the baths at that famous resort.

We notice in the Valdosta Times that they think the Valdosta amateur ball team can find something to interest them at Madison. If we are not badly mistaken the professional team of that city would find all they could attend to in our boys.

The Valdosta Southern railway is selling tickets to Valdosta and return at the rate of $1.00 for the round trip, thus giving opportunity to all who desire to witness the games of baseball in that city this week. Tickets good on train leaving here at 1:40. Returning train leaves Valdosta at 6:30 arriving here about 8 o'clock.

Rev. T. C. Bradford informs us that a revival meeting will be commenced in the Methodist church at this place on the first Sunday in next month. The pastor does not know yet just who will assist him in the services but expects to have several ministers at different times.

Rod K. Shaw, once a citizen of our town and a very popular one, was in the city Sunday for a few hours renewing acquaintance with his many friends. Mr. Shaw is one of the most successful life insurance agents in the country and ranks high with his company, the New York Life.

If you would spend a pleasant day and have an opportunity for a dip in one of Florida's most delightful health-giving springs, accompany the baseball boys to White Springs Tuesday. It is expected that a large crowd of our people will go along.

The married men who have been the guests of the "Stag Whist Club" at their recent entertainments returned the courtesy by giving a "Stag Whist party" at Knights of Pythias hall last night at which the young men were guests. These occasions have become very popular and the affair of last night was in every respect enjoyable. Whist was the game and elegant refreshments were served.

Mamie, the 7-year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Eppes, was the victim of a serious accident Sunday afternoon. She was playing on the front piazza of her home when in some way she lost her footing and fell to the ground, a distance of several feet. Her left arm sustained a serious fracture near the wrist from which she is suffering considerable pain. We trust the little one will recover speedily, and that the broken bones will knit and heal nicely.
